TERMS

1. All types of short films are allowed, including documentary films, cartoons, animated films, home movies, professional film productions and mobile movies. Maximum running time is 90 seconds without trailer and credits.

2. Films can be submitted on DVD, Data-DVD, USB stick or transferred digitally via the zeitim:puls upload channel.

3. The submitted files must be completed before the deadline. Films already submitted to other contests are allowed.

4. The filmmaker gives the organizer permission to use all submitted materials for promotion and publicity purposes, including the right to use the materials for further association events and programs. The organizer reserves the right to present the submitted films at festivals and submit to other contests

5. The entrant keeps the organizers indemnified against all third party claims. People appearing in the submitted films must agree with the screening of the film in the competition. Music must be public domain or license free. Copyrights must not be infringed. The organizer does not take any cost of AKM, GEMA or any other collecting society.

6. Winners in each contest category receive the zeitim:puls award, a certificate, prize money or prizes.

7. A jury of filmmakers, artists, educators etc. determines the winning films. The jury's decision is incontestable and does not need to be justified.

8. The submission deadline is the entry deadline. Letters must be postmarked within this deadline. Entrants must register in order to submit a film to the contest.

9. Submitted films and materials will be returned on demand at the entrant's own expense.

10. By signing the entry form, the entrant accepts the rules stated above. Legal recourse is excluded.
